
Technical documentation

The product is accompanied of conformity certificate which attest the performance of requirements regarding the product. Market introduction upon request by AMCO contact will be send copies from opinions which interested. In some cases, at the assembly products from special category satisfied the requirements of areas covered, are necessary special advises and approval by owners of technological installations in which are mounted the products. Upon request by AMCO contact will be transmitted the necessary documents and opinions.